1. Overview of the status of the cluster

At the beginning of every Quality Round Table the status of the implementation of the measures is reported.

1. Small Quality Round Table 25.11.2020

Assessment of criteria:

For all programs in the cluster: 3 to 4.3.2

2. Small Quality Round Table 07.07.2021

Assessment of criteria:

MA Modern Indian Studies: 1.1 to 2.7

10.2021: Report at Study Commission

10.2021: Report at Faculty Council

1. Big Quality Round Table 10.11.2021

Topics:

MA Modern Indian Studies

- How to raise the attractiveness of the MA program for European students?
- Advertising strategies for the MA program in Germany and Europe

2-subject-BA Modern Indian Studies

- Competencies in subject specific topics and methods in Modern Indian Studies and the role of (inter)disciplinarity
- Examinations and workload (course organization, exam formats, exam organization, grading and standards of assessment)
- General orientation and structure of the degree program. Its future prospects and strategies of student recruitment

12.2021: Report at Study Commission

01.2022: Report at Faculty Council

3. Small Quality Round Table 05.07.2023

Assessment of criteria:

2-subject-BA Modern Indian Studies: 1.1.1 to 2.7

For all programs in the cluster: 5.1 to 6.2

11.2023: Report at Study Commission

11.2023: Faculty Council

2. Big Quality Round Table 24.11.2023

Topics:

MA Modern Indian Studies

- Practical Issues: Organization of courses, modules and exams; planning of the course of studies; internships and semester abroad, excursions
- Contents and structures: Themes and topics; study foci; language training

2-subject-BA Modern Indian Studies

- Practical Issues: Organization of courses, modules and exams; planning of the course of studies; internships and semester abroad, excursions
- Contents and structures: Themes and topics; study foci; language training

External experts have participated: JunProf. Dr. Carmen Brandt (Universität Bonn, scientist), Sabine Pabst ("FoodFirst Informations- und Aktions-Netzwerk" (FIAN International) (practising professional („Berufspraktiker“)), Bartosz Zdanowicz (HU Berlin, student).

04.2024: Report at Study Commission

04.2024: Report at Faculty Council

Further proceedings:

Following the quality round, the protocol is available in Sharepoint. The external reviewers will then write their reviews. As soon as these are available, they will be discussed in a small quality round. The central evaluation committee will then also begin its work and the "CEMIS" cluster will enter the internal accreditation process. The central internal accreditation is going to take place in summer 2024. The next small quality round table will presumably take place also in summer term 2024.

2. Criteria evaluation in the cluster Modern Indian Studies

The following are the results of the assessment of the quality criteria for the programs in the cluster Modern Indian Studies.

6.1 Equal opportunities guarantee	07.2023: The current non-occupation of the Equal Opportunities Officer at the Faculty of Social Sciences and the lack of a central anti-discrimination office is a cause of concern for students. Therefore, the following measures have been developed: In order to deal with the specific problems of CeMIS students (including the issue of caste), the introduction of a reporting procedure with ad hoc committees to be set up as required at CeMIS should be examined. Discussion rounds are to be organised once a semester to raise awareness of the issue.	ongoing	11.2023: in preparation

Criteria	Date: Improvement & responsibility	Time-horizon	State of the implementation		Date goal achieved
	The creation of an anti-discrimination concept for CeMIS is to be examined. An agenda item on anti-discrimination will be included in the orientation phase. In addition, it will be examined whether it is possible to reserve one class session in the compulsory course in the first semester of the Master's degree for this topic ----- Study Programme Coordinator CeMIS Board
