

Workshop:

„Spirits in Modern Asia: Challenges for Societies and Scientists“

Organisiert von Prof. Dr. Andrea Lauser, Institut für Ethnologie, Assoziierte am Lichtenberg- Kolleg

Lichtenberg-Kolleg, Georg-August-Universität Göttingen 18.09.-19.09.2010

Programm

Samstag, 18.09.2010

08:30-09:00 Begrüßung und Eröffnung des Workshops

Panel I: Spirits as a Challenge for Modern Societies

09:00-09:30 Dr. Kari Telle
"Spirits and the Politics of Spiritual Protection on Lombok, Indonesia"

10:00-10:30 Prof. Dr. Laurel Kendall
"Gods, Gifts, and Markets: the Implications of Spirited consumption in Korea and Vietnam"

11:00-11:15 Pause

11:15-11:45 Dr. Brac de la Perrière
„The Shan Bands: New Spiritual Practices in Contemporary Burma“

12:15-13:30 Mittagessen

Panel II: Spirits in Recent Media Discourses

13:30-15:00 Dr. Pattana Kitiarsa
"Thai Ghosts Go Modern: Production, Circulation, and Consumption of the Horror in Contemporary Thailand"

15:00-15:15 Pause

15:15-16:45 Dr. Patrice Ladwig
"The Materiality and Ontology of the Invisible: Methodological and Theoretical Thoughts on Studying Ghosts"

16:45-17:00 Pause

17:00-18:30 Prof. Dr. Peter Bräunlein
"How virtual are Ghosts? Studying the Supernatural in Movies as a challenge for Anthropology of Religion"

Sonntag, 19.09.2010

Panel III: Spirits as a Methodological Challenge for Scholars

- 10:00-10:30 Prof. Dr. Annette Hornbacher
"Balinese Ancestor Spirits between Liberation and Reincarnation"
- 11:00-11:30 Prof. Dr. Mu-Chou Poo „ Encountering Ghosts and Spirits in Ancient China"
- 12:00-13:00 Mittagessen
- 13:00-13:30 Incentive Talks: Paul Christensen, Jelana Vajen
- 14:00-14:15 Pause
- 14:15-15:15 Dr. Didier Bertrand
„How Mediums Practices could be considered from the Psychological Point of View"
- 15:15-15:30 Pause
- 15:30-16:00 Abschlussdiskussion